

General Partnership & Collaboration Resources

Print Resources (from NSRC and NSLC Libraries)*

California Healthy Cities Project. Promoting Healthy Youth: Strategies for Recreation and Community Services Partnerships

Profiles efforts in some California cities where recreation departments have designed programs in partnership with businesses, schools, resident and consumer groups, and other community-based groups to promote recreation in combating youth problems.

nationalserviceresources.org/nsrclibrary?action=detail&view=&item=R0192

National Assembly of National Voluntary Health & Social Welfare Organizations. New Community Collaboration Manual

Explores the options for building and sustaining collaborations. Discusses how to maintain the momentum of a collaboration, how to involve youth and business, and the role of the media in contemporary collaboration.

nationalserviceresources.org/nsrclibrary?action=detail&view=&item=M0046

Winer, Michael and Karen Ray. Collaboration Handbook: Creating, Sustaining, and Enjoying the Journey

Provides an understanding of the process of collaboration. Defines collaboration by detailing its four stages along with each respective challenge. Concludes with appendices of resources, documentation forms, and worksheets.

nationalserviceresources.org/nsrclibrary?action=detail&view=&item=W0012

Websites

Campaign Consultation, Inc. (CCI)

Provides training to national service grantees that enhances their ability to develop the resources and partnerships needed to sustain and/or expand their programs and services beyond federal support.

www.sustainabilityonline.com

Building Partnerships from the Sustainable Communities Network

Includes resources and case studies.

www.sustainable.org/creating/partnerships.html

* Programs funded by the Corporation for National and Community Service may borrow resources by mail from the NSRC or NSLC libraries. Please call 1-800-860-2684, or 1-866-245-SERV, for more information.

Online Documents

Where to Look For Partners

By Melinda Hudson, Director of Public Liaison, Corporation for National Service
snipurl.com/find_partners

Public/Private Partnerships

By Melinda Hudson, Director of Public Liaison, Corporation for National Service
snipurl.com/partnerships

Effective Practices for National Service and Community Partnerships

By Dee Dee Glascoff, snipurl.com/effective_partners

Effective Practices

Building Successful Partnerships

A collaboration can often reach more people than a single organization, but sometimes participating groups will inadvertently focus on their own interests and agendas. This practice suggests ways to overcome this situation.

snipurl.com/NSRC_32917

Adopting Community Development Approaches for Collaboration

Executive Directors of State Commissions discuss effective practices in community development initiatives, resulting in partnerships that increased the sustainability of national service programs.

snipurl.com/NSRC_113

Partnering with Other Service Organizations

Addresses ways that partners can collaborate more functionally, providing practical lessons learned from a panel of program directors experienced in collaborating.

snipurl.com/NSRC_33289

Thinking About Sustainability and Partnerships

A discussion about successful partnerships national service programs have had with government agencies and the private sector.

snipurl.com/NSRC_114

Establishing Mutual Gains in Sustainability and Resource Development with 25 Cross-Agency Collaboration Methods

Collaboration is an effective method for national service organizations and other volunteer agencies to meet common goals. This effective practice describes 25 ways to establish mutual gains in sustainability and resource development through collaboration with other volunteer programs.

snipurl.com/NSRC_33388