

Welcome!

The Clearinghouse is a part of the Higher Education Research Institute in the Graduate School of Education and Information Studies at UCLA.

This site is designed to provide resources, tips and links to other sites that offer information on service-learning in higher education.

For searchable databases of information, and for more on service learning in K-12, go to the ETR Associates web page at <http://www.servicelearning.org>.

From 1998-2001, Learn and Serve America (<http://www.lsaexchange.org>) and the Corporation for National Service (<http://www.cns.gov>) provided grants to support the Clearinghouse.

We have designed this website by topics (see bar at left) so that you can easily navigate the many service-learning resources available on the worldwide web. To see where the links will take you, simply put your mouse over the keywords for any topic.

We hope you will find the following resources helpful as you plan and implement service-learning courses and programs. Please do not hesitate to contact us if there are other areas we should be covering, or if you know of good resources we should be mentioning here.
