

Training and Technical Assistance

- Training and Technical Assistance Resources
  - The Service-Learning Clearinghouse Project web site contains links to a number of resources for higher education service-learning training and technical Assistance.
- Finding Funding for Your Programs
  - Many of us in the field of service learning rely on grant funding to sustain our programs. At the UCLA Service-Learning Clearinghouse Project, we have gathered some resource information on how and where to find private and public funding. We have also included resource information on grant writing.
