The Standard Form-424 facesheet is required for applications submitted for federal assistance. The SF-424 contents are duplicated in eGrants, although the format is different. (See Appendix A.)

Note: When completing the application in eGrants, a number of the data entry boxes described below will already be completed through the process of setting up an account for the applicant organization and individual program contact.

B. Applicant Info

If you need help establishing a new organization account in eGrants, or a new user account for an existing organization account, please refer to the eGrants Help Desk website:

<http://www.learnandserve.gov/egrants/help.asp>

After you create your eGrants account, begin by selecting “New” under the Creating an Application heading on your Home Page. Select “Learn and Serve America” as the Program Area and click “Go.” You will then be asked to select a NOFA. Choose: Learn and Serve America Indian Tribes and U.S. Territories 2009 (NEW). Once you create an application, you will be allowed to edit as needed until you are ready to submit.

Do not use the New button again as this will start a brand new application. Once you have initiated an application, it will be listed in the View My Grants/Applications section of the homepage under the status: Grantee Edit of Application or Report. If you exit and then return to eGrants and wish to continue entering or editing your application, please open your saved version by selecting View My Grants/Applications in the status Grantee Edit of Application or Report.

Please note that the Authorized Representative name is blank. You cannot select a name for this field. Instead, the Authorized Representative will need to have his/her own account to click on the Assurances and Certifications at the end of the application. (Part I below.)

Under Project Information select, “Enter New” and choose a title for the proposed project. It is possible to enter another address for the project, which may or not be the same as that of the Legal Applicant.

D. Narrative Sections

Sections 1-7 are text boxes in eGrants. Click on the heading of each one to enter text, or cut and paste text from a word processing document into the text field. Please note that we recommend using word processing software that will check spelling and count characters. In evaluating your application, reviewers will assess these narrative sections on the basis of your program design, organizational capacity, and budget adequacy/cost effectiveness. The weights assigned to each category and its corresponding narrative sections are listed in the chart below.

Category	Percentage	Narrative Sections
Program Design	70%	Executive Summary Three Year Plan, Participant Development Needs and Activities, Strengthening Communities
Organizational Capacity	20%	Organizational Capacity
Budget Adequacy/Cost Effectiveness	10%	Budget Adequacy/Cost Effectiveness

Character limits for each narrative section are listed below. Please note that spaces are counted as a characters.

When writing your application narrative, please keep in mind the 2009 goals set forth in the Notice (www.learnandserve.gov/for_organizations/funding/nofa):

(1) to support high-quality service-learning sponsored by Indian Tribes and U.S. Territories working with schools; and

(2) to engage students in service-learning projects that promote healthy communities and healthy youth by focusing on one or more of the following areas: Health and Wellness; Environment; Retention of Tribal Language, History, and Culture; Community Development/Economic Development; and Crime Prevention/Violence Prevention.

1. Executive Summary

(Maximum character limit: 3,000, or approximately 1 ½ double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

Briefly summarize your proposed program in a few paragraphs. Think of this summary as your “elevator speech” in which you briefly summarize the key aspects of your proposed program.

The summary must include:

- The name of the grant applicant and the name of the local K-12 school (s) that will implement the service-learning program
- Anticipated number of student participants engaged over the three year grant period
- Participant Development emphasis area (academic, civic engagement, or reduction of risky behaviors)
- The community problems and/or needs to be addressed by student service-learners
- The major objectives and strategy of the program
- Notable and unique features
- The number of subgrantees (LEAs or schools) if you plan to subgrant

2. Three Year Plan

(Maximum character limit: 6,000, or approximately 3 double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

All applicants must submit a three year plan that includes:

- What Office in your organization will administer the service-learning program
- Major milestones, key tasks and corresponding dates for the development and management of your proposed program (e.g., training events, conferences, recognition events, memorandum of agreements with partners, and start dates for various projects)
- How you will keep the tribal council and other tribal leaders aware of your service-learning program and its accomplishments
- If applicable, subgrant information, including:
 - anticipated number of subgrants
 - size (in dollars) of subgrants
 - whether the subgrants are competitive
 - whether the subgrants are single or multi-year
- Evaluation Plan. The evaluation plan should contain the strategy you will use to track progress toward meeting goals, objectives, and the performance measure; assessing the program for continuous improvement, and documenting program impact. Applicants are strongly encouraged to allocate ample resources for program evaluation. Grantees and subgrantees may consider an independent evaluation and/or seeking support from higher education or other experts to help design data collection and the evaluation system.

Your plan should describe how evidence will be gathered on the program's effects on schools, community conditions, and students' academic or civic engagement or the reduction of students' risky behaviors.

- Sustainability Activities. Indicate clear plans for sustainability, including how you will institutionalize service-learning in participating youth serving organizations. Describe plans for publicizing and co-branding your program and supporting Learn and Serve national identity.

3. Participant Development

(Maximum character limit: 8,000, or approximately 4 double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

Recent research supports using a six-step process to increase the likelihood that service-learning will have positive outcomes. This process is abbreviated IPARDC and involves students in:

- Investigating community issues
- Planning a project
- Acting to address a problem
- Reflecting on their experiences and the process
- Demonstrating their work to a wider audience
- Celebrating

While the IPARDC process clarifies what service-learning is, the new K-12 Service-Learning Standards for Quality Practice spell out in detail what it takes to provide students with high quality service-learning experiences. A crucial part of a grantee's role is to understand the IPARDC process and how to deliver it in a high-quality manner.

In this section, please describe how you will use service-learning to achieve the following goals:

- Helping participants use the knowledge and skills learned in the classroom to address one or more community needs or problems.
- Ensuring participants are involved in program planning, that their efforts are recognized, and that they and their teachers receive needed preparation and training.
- Ensuring participants are academically and/or civic engaged or refrain from risky behaviors.
- Developing a Training and Technical Assistance strategy to assist teachers and others who will work with student participants to use the IPARDC process to increase civic and/or academic engagement or reduce engagement in risky behavior.
- Engaging and/or serving disadvantaged youth in your program.
- Bringing participants from different backgrounds (such as ethnicity, race, religion, socioeconomic status, age, grade levels, and physical and academic ability) together to address shared community needs and community problems.

School-Based participants are youth ages 5 to 17 engaged in service through the service-learning program. Participants may also include children with disabilities as defined in section 602 of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 USC 1401), who receive services under part B of that Act.

What is Service-Learning?

The Corporation uses the interpretation provided in the National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993, which defines service-learning as an educational method that:

- is conducted in and meets the needs of a community;
- is coordinated with an elementary school, secondary school, institution of higher education, or community service program, and with the community; and
- helps foster civic responsibility; and that--
- is integrated into and enhances the academic curriculum of the students, or the educational components of the community service program in which the participants are enrolled; and
- provides structured time for the students or participants to reflect on the service experience.

Please visit the 2009 Learn and Serve Grant Competition website for more information on the Quality Standards and the IPARDC process:

http://www.servicelearning.org/lsa/lsa_page/2009_nofos/index.php

4. Community Needs and Service Activities

(Maximum character limit: 5,000, or approximately 2 ½ double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

Learn and Serve America expects that grantees will use this grant to engage participants in meaningful service activities that address one or more community problems or community needs.

Describe one or more critical community problems or community needs from the following list that projects will service-learning projects will address – Health and Wellness; Environment; Retention of Tribal Language, History, and Culture; Community Development/Economic Development; and Crime Prevention/Violence Prevention. For example, an applicant that decides to focus on Health and Wellness could include, but are not limited to, service-learning activities related to diabetes prevention, obesity prevention, nutrition education, HIV/ AIDS education. Focus on how your program benefits people other than the service-learners and makes communities healthier places to live.

Provide a general rationale for choosing your issue and support your decision with evidence and data. For example, an applicant focusing on health and wellness may share information such as the diabetes rate in the local community, the lack of health care resources, citations from local media coverage or reports from organizations on the health issues or tribal documents that show that health and wellness is a priority issue for the tribal nation.

Explain why youth service through schools is an appropriate strategy for addressing the need/problem. Also, describe your proposed service-learning activities and how they support the strategy.

5. Strengthening Communities

(Maximum character limit: 5,000, or approximately 2 ½ double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

This section deals with the impact of service-learning on institutions such as partner organizations, schools, adult volunteers, and tribal elders. It also focuses on how you plan to institutionalize your service-learning program.

- Describe the organizations that will be your partners and their roles and responsibilities. Also, describe the written documents you will use to formalize partnerships (e.g. memorandum of agreement).
- Describe how the tribal nation will coordinate the service-learning program with the school (s) that you will partner with.
- Describe how you will generate adult volunteers to support or help coordinate your efforts. Estimate the number of adult volunteers you expect to recruit.
- Describe how tribal elders will be involved in your program, such as part of the adult volunteers or as sources to provide guidance, advice, or training for the program.

- Describe how your program will work to institutionalize service-learning at the grantee level and, if appropriate, at the subgrantee levels (e.g., service-learning policies, creation of teachers and officials trained to continue practicing service-learning, development of training and technical assistance documents).

6. Organizational Capacity

(Maximum character limit: 9,000, or approximately 4 ½ double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

This section refers to the capacity of the applicant to manage a federal grant, effectively lead a group of subgrantees (where applicable), and complete the project plan.

Include the following subheadings in this section of the application: a) Federal Grant Experience/Track Record, b) Program/Fiscal Oversight, c) Previous Experience with Learn and Serve America (or Corporation) Grants, and d) Staff Roles and Experience.

- Federal Grant Experience/Track Record. Applicants must provide evidence they have the experience and/or the capacity to manage a federal grant (i.e., have the systems in place to manage federal funds). Fund management includes the ability to document and report cash and in-kind matching funds. Applicant must submit a statement that the Tribal Nation or the U.S. Territory is not banned from receiving federal funds or in receivership by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.
- Program/Fiscal Oversight. Applicants must be capable of providing sound programmatic and fiscal oversight. Sound oversight includes the ability to implement ongoing self-assessment and continuous improvement efforts, provide or secure needed technical assistance, monitor service-learning activities, and submit required fiscal and programmatic reports in a timely manner. If relevant, applicants should also describe their capacity to adequately support, assess and monitor subgrantees.
- Previous Experience with Learn and Serve America (or Corporation) Grants. If applicants have received funding from Learn and Serve America and/or other Corporation for National and Community Service programs, please describe what was accomplished with the Corporation funding. Previous Learn and Serve America grantees should describe how the proposed program will build off previous successes or how activities in this application are substantially different. If your organization has never received Learn and Serve or Corporation funding, you may indicate N/A.
- Staff Roles and Experience. Applicants should list the key personnel who will oversee and implement their program, describe their roles and responsibilities, and experience administering federal grants. Applicants must ensure qualified personnel who have appropriate experience in service-learning or community-service programming and fiscal management are responsible for program operations.

7. Budget Adequacy/Cost Effectiveness

(Maximum character limit: 4,000, or approximately 2 double-spaced pages, 12 point font.)

Describe plans to develop a cost-effective program, including development of diverse resources. How does the proposed program leverage resources to support program implementation and sustainability? Explain how the proposed program builds community support for the program at the local, state and/or national levels.

Please note: Grant applications will be evaluated to ensure that proposed budgets are clearly aligned with the activities outlined in the project plan. If there are elements of the budget or budget narrative that do not clearly connect with the project activities, please justify their inclusion in this section.

E. Performance Measures

Applicants must create a complete performance measure for participant development. It will spell out how many student participants you will involve and the specific positive effect you expect the service-learning program to have on student academic engagement, civic engagement or risk behaviors. Participants are youth engaged in service-learning activities – not service beneficiaries.

eGrants will prompt you to create a complete measure as follows. After clicking on “Create a performance measure,” you will:

- Select the Issue Area and Service Categories that represents the core activities of the proposed program (e.g., Environment, Disaster Response, Education, etc.)
- Enter the requested information for the participant development measure as prompted by the text box labels. Specify your output, intermediate outcome, and end outcome:
 1. Output – estimated # of student participants over 3 years
 2. Intermediate Outcome - X% of these students you expect to improve in academic engagement or civic engagement or X% of these students will show a reduction in risky behavior (whichever you chose as the focus for this measure)
 3. End Outcome – Aspirational statement of longer term benefit to participants (e.g., % of students graduating from high school). You must enter an end outcome even though you will not be required to collect this data if not feasible.

Please visit the 2009 Learn and Serve Grant Competition website for more information on the creating a performance measure in eGrants:

http://www.servicelearning.org/lsa/lsa_page/2009_nofos/index.php

The CNCS/federal share of administrative costs is limited by statute to 5% of total federal funds actually expended under this grant. To calculate the federal maximum share of 5%, add the CNCS share subtotals of Sections I and II and multiply the sum by 5.26% (.0526). This total is the maximum amount you may request from CNCS for this budget category.

Applicants can choose to use one of two methods to calculate administrative costs – a CNCS Fixed Percentage method (Option A) or a Federally Approved Indirect Cost Rate method (Option B). Select only one of these options.

A. CNCS Fixed Percentage Method—Option A

If you choose Option A, you may charge, for administrative costs, a fixed 5% of the total of the federal funds expended. In order to charge this fixed 5%, the grantee match for administrative costs may not exceed 10% of all direct cost expenditures. These rates may be used without supporting documentation and are in lieu of a formally approved indirect cost rate.

1. To calculate the maximum CNCS share for administrative/indirect costs under Option A, add the subtotals of the CNCS share in Sections I and II and Multiply this sum by .0526. This is the maximum amount you can request as CNCS share of. Enter this amount as the CNCS share for Section III A.

2. To calculate the maximum grantee share of administrative/indirect costs, add the subtotals of Sections I and II (grantee share + CNCS share) and multiply this sum by 10 percent (.10). This is the maximum amount you can claim as grantee share of administrative/indirect costs. Enter this amount as the grantee share for Section III A.

B. Federally Approved Indirect Cost Rate Method—Option B

Applicants who choose to use their federally approved indirect cost (IDC) rate to calculate administrative costs should select Option B. Specify the Cost Type for which your organization has current documentation on file (i.e., Provisional, Predetermined, Fixed, or Final indirect cost rate). Supply your approved IDC rate (percentage). Whether or not your entire IDC rate is used to calculate administrative costs for this grant is at your discretion. Please show your calculations and indicate, if different than the approved IDC, the rate you have chosen to use.

1. Calculate the total allowable administrative costs for the project using the method prescribed by your organization (i.e., based on salaries and benefits, total direct costs, or other), and calculate all totals.
2. Multiply the sum of the CNCS share subtotals in Sections I and II by .0526. This is the maximum amount you can request as CNCS share of administrative/indirect costs. Enter this amount as the CNCS share for Section III B.
3. Subtract the amount calculated in step 2 from the amount calculated in step 1. This is the maximum amount the applicant can claim as grantee share for administrative/indirect costs. Enter this amount as the grantee share for Section III B.

Definitions: Administrative Costs and Indirect Cost Rates

Administrative cost means general or centralized expenses of overall administration of an organization that receives CNCS funds and does not include particular project costs. For organizations that do not have an established indirect cost rate for federal awards, administrative costs include:

1. costs for financial, accounting, auditing, contracting or general legal services, except in unusual cases where they are specifically approved in writing by CNCS as project costs;
2. costs for internal evaluation, including overall organizational management improvement costs (except for independent and internal evaluations of the project); and
3. costs for general liability insurance that protects the organization(s) responsible for operating a project, other than insurance costs solely attributable to the project.

Administrative costs may also include that portion of salaries and benefits of the project director and other administrative staff not attributable to the time spent in support of a specific project. The principles that pertain to the allocation and documentation of personnel costs are stated in the OMB circulars that are incorporated in CNCS regulations [45 CFR 2541.220(b)].

Administrative costs do not include the following allowable expenses directly related to a project (including their operations and objectives), such as:

1. costs for independent evaluations and any internal evaluations of the project;
2. costs, excluding those already covered in an organization's indirect cost rate, attributable to staff that work in a direct project support, operational, or oversight capacity, including, but not limited to: support staff whose functions directly support project activities; staff who coordinate and facilitate single or multi-site project activities; and staff who review, disseminate and implement CNCS guidance and policies directly relating to a project;

3. space, facility and communications costs that primarily support project operations, excluding those costs that are already covered by an organization's indirect costs rate; and
4. other allowable costs, excluding those costs that are already covered by an organization's indirect cost rate, specifically approved by CNCS as directly attributable to a project.

Indirect Cost Rates

For organizations that have an established indirect cost rate for federal awards, administrative costs means those costs that are included in the organization's indirect cost rate. Such costs are generally identified with the organization's overall operation and are further described in Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circulars A-21, A-87, and A-122.

1. If grantees have an approved indirect cost rate, such rate will constitute documentation of the grantee's administrative costs, including the 5% maximum payable by CNCS and the grantee match of administrative costs.
2. If a grantee wants to claim more than 10% match in administrative costs, it must have an approved indirect cost rate. Where appropriate, CNCS will establish an indirect cost rate that may be used for this and other federal awards.
