

I found out

I learned more when I helped out.

Carol Sanchez, freshman pre-nursing student, combines studies with community work.

She signed up for Service Learning in a Psychology class, then pursued it on her own, helping the homeless.

AMERICORPS

Carol and her husband Matt joined AmeriCorps.

She joined the AmeriCorps Recycling Project.

She volunteered in a soup kitchen.

She hosted visitors in the Japan Club.

She helped in the Special Olympics.

choice

You don't have to see the whole staircase just take the first step!

She helped in civic awareness presentations such as Martin Luther King Day and the Inafamaolek Training for kids.

Most of all, Carol and six other AmeriCorps members serve as tutors in the GCC Success Center.

Carol helps a GCC ESL Class as an in-class tutor.

A wife and mother, Carol finds recreation in helping out.

She was inducted into Phi Theta Kappa and has a 4.0 GPA

For the first time, a GCC student was awarded the Community Campus Compact Award

Serve and Learn – Carol's secret to success.

In March 2010, Carol was awarded the 2010
Community Campus Compact Award

Join the Service Learning projects in your class and find out what it means to really learn.

“Who knew that Service Learning would bring out the best in us and make us turn one thing into something great?”