

Promote your materials today!

Did you ever wish that you could easily publicize and get support for your service-learning project?

Would you have liked access to what others learned in the first years of their program?

Do you wonder if others would be interested in your own discoveries?

Become part of the nation's largest service-learning resource collection and let others know about the successful approaches used in your service-learning program!

What can I contribute and promote? Surveys, forms, curricula, project plans, or any other materials that could be helpful to others involved in service-learning.

Just tell us...

1. Author(s): _____
 2. Author's institutional affiliation: _____
 3. Are you a Learn and Serve America grantee? ___Yes ___No ___Not Sure
 4. Date of publication: _____
 5. Your Information: Name: _____
Organization: _____
Phone: _____ e-mail: _____
-

Share Your Project! Whether or not you're a LSA grantee, do it to support the greater service-learning community and to allow others to build on your work so their students can succeed and their communities can grow.

Note: By submitting print and/or electronic materials you are agreeing to have them added to the print and/or electronic library. If you or the copyright holder have questions please go to http://www.servicelearning.org/library/mat_contrib/.

It's as easy as...

- 1 Complete a Contribution Form.
 - 2 Send the materials to: info@servicelearning.org or to the mailing address below.
 - 3 You're done! Thanks for contributing to America's largest service-learning library!
- ? Questions? Contact the librarian at info@servicelearning.org or 1-866-245-7378 ext. 240

Librarian
National Service-Learning Clearinghouse
4 Carbonero Way
Scotts Valley, CA 95066
USA

Visit us at www.servicelearning.org

