

Speaking Out: Conflict & Community

Final Reflection

Due: Thursday, March 15

You have 3 options for your final reflection in this class.
Please choose one and submit it by Thursday.

OPTION 1:

Revise your first essay and answer the following question using examples from texts we've studied. (2-3 pages)

“Why do hatred and violence exist? What can we do to improve our community?”

Expectations:

Typed

Edited

12-point simple font (Times, Arial, Garamond)

1" margins

OPTION 2:

Write a 2-3 page poem on the themes of this class. This poem should demonstrate evidence of your critical thinking about the texts we've studied and ideas we've discussed.

Expectations:

Typed

Edited

12-point font

1" margins

OPTION 3:

Write a reflective essay about the link between music and social change. This essay should include examples of lyrics and an analysis of how they relate to the themes of this class. Feel free to use examples from the music we listened to, or some of your own.
