

Service Learning Guidelines

Your service learning project should have the following characteristics:

- You've identified a need and you are serving that need.
- The project requires academic skills.
- The project connects with your topic in some way.
- The project could have ongoing, lasting impact.
- Your project has positive impact on your community.

What kinds of projects would qualify?

- Create a recycling program and provide for its future success.
- Design a lesson on alternative energy for middle schoolers.
- Film a Public Service Announcement about hidden prejudice in high school (like against people who play role-playing games).
- Write a piece of legislation that corrects a social wrong.
- Make a website that offers resources addressing an issue or problem in your field.

Dates 2/22-4/1

You may work in groups.

Log your hours and submit them to the Service Learning Coordinator.
